Based in Montreal with her busy family of five, Sandra Churchill is a sought-after audiobook narrator, having worked with both publishers and indie authors. A classically trained soprano with a B.Mus.Voice Perf from the University of Toronto, Sandra has been telling stories for as long as she can remember. Her early love of reading, combined with years of performance experience, brought her to audiobooks, performing numerous genres. Like many, she fell in love with L.M. Montgomery’s works as a youngster and will always count the first three Anne books as some of her favourites to record.

In this short video, Sandra speaks about the history, challenges, and rewards of interpreting some favourite works by L.M. Montgomery, including all three of the first Anne titles.
